Friday, October 10, 2008

08.30-09.00: Registration and Coffee

09.00-09.10: Welcome by Axel Larsen, Head of Department of Psychology, Copenhagen University.

09.10-09.15: Practical Information by the NNPL Organizing Committee.

09.15-12.00
Session 1: Witness Psychology
Chair: Professor Pär Anders Granhag

Ear-witness identification accuracy in children vs. adults
Lisa Öhman*, Anders Eriksson and Pär Anders Granhag

East meets West: Accuracy and response latency in Estonia and British young adults’ multi-ethnicity face recognition
Kristjan Kask* and Ray Bull

Skulking around the dinosaur statue: Eliciting cues to children’s deception via strategic disclosure of evidence
Franziska Clemens*, Pär Anders Granhag, Leif Strömwall, Aldert Vrij, Sara Landström, Emma Roos af Hjelmsäter and Maria Hartwig

10.00-10.30 COFFEE BREAK

Child witnesses and social influence: The effects of source of misinformation.
Emma Roos af Hjelmsäter*, Pär Anders Granhag and Leif Strömwall

Content analysis of successive eyewitness statements using LSA
Farhan Sarwar*, Sverker Sikström*, Carl Martin Allwood and Åse Innes-Ker

The accuracy of children’s identifications and the realism of their confidence judgments in sequential and elimination line-ups
Gunilla Fredin*, Carl Martin Allwood and Åse Innes-Ker

Losing a child to the Child Protective Services. Biological parents’ memory of the removal and psychological problems in planned versus acute removals
Ingvild Danielsen Rongved, Gunn Astrid Baugerud* and Annika Melinder

11.30-12.00 PANEL DISCUSSION
12.00-13.00 LUNCH

13.00-17.00

Session 2: Legal decision making
Chair: Professor Eva Smith

13.00-14.00 Keynote speaker: Professor Peter J. Van Koppen: The strength of evidence

14.00-14.15 BREAK

The responsiveness of separated asylum seeking minors in interpreter mediated asylum hearings in Sweden
Olga Keselman*, Ann-Christin Cederborg, Michael E. Lamb and Örjan Dahlström

Legal requirements for child protection work in Sweden
Pernilla Leviner*, Lotta Vahlne Westerhäll, Wiweka Warnling Nerep and Clara Hellner Gumpert

Vulnerable children and their health – project ideas open for discussion
Elin Hultman*, Ann-Cristin Cederborg and Karin Fälth Magnusson

15.00-15.30 COFFEE BREAK

In-Court versus Out-of-Court Testimonies: Children’s Experiences and Adults Assessments
Sara Landström* and Pär Anders Granhag

The challenge of assessing credibility when children with intellectual disabilities are alleged victims of abuse
Ann-Christin Cederborg* and Clara H. Gumpert

Attitudes among legal professionals in Sweden towards children’s memory and meta-memory performance as eyewitnesses
Jens Knutsson*, Marcus Johansson and Carl martin Allwood

A survey of police officers’ and prosecutors’ beliefs about crime victim behaviours
Karl Ask*

16.30-17.00 PANEL DISCUSSION
Saturday, October 11, 2008

8.30-09.00 Coffee

09.00-12.00
Session 3: Psychopathy and criminal behaviour
Chair: MSc Tommy Lillebæk

09.00-10.00 Keynote speaker Professor David Cooke: Psychopathy as an Important Psychological Construct: Towards a Comprehensive Model

The utilization of the Danish version of the HCR-20 violence risk assessment scheme in a forensic hospital setting
Liselotte Pedersen*

10.15.-10.30 COFFEE BREAK

Aggression amongst teenage girls – how and why do they do it?
Camilla Pedersen*

Revisiting the generality versus specificity debate in criminal careers research: Do some offenders specialize in co-offending
Sarah B. van Mastrigt*

Criminal Behaviour amongst persons with Autistic Spectrum Disorders (ASD)
Camilla Pedersen*

Psychometric properties of the Police Stress Questionnaire on a sample of Icelandic police officers
Ólafur Örn Bragason*, Ólafur Kári Jónsson and Friðrik H. Jónsson

11.30-12.00 PANEL DISCUSSION

12.00-13.00 LUNCH

Warm thanks to Institute of Psychology at Copenhagen University, and The Research Council of Culture and Communication.